'Airdrie'
Warrenton, Missouri
May 8, 1954

My dear Mrs. Chapman;

Thank you for answering my letter and for the enclosures. You have done a wonderful piece of work and believe me I know what that work entails both in time and eye sight.

I published my 'Miami Valley ^{with} Abstracts' in 1940, four counties, but have not been able to have anything else published; have let our Dayton (Ohio) Library make copies of my records, also the Western Reserve Historical Society, Cleveland and the Genealogical Society of Utah. I am going back to Ohio in about two weeks and will see if the library will purchase your Isle of Wight records or perhaps the D.A.R. Chapter will purchase them for their shelf in the library. If I had known of your books sooner I would have had them but now I am disposing of my genealogical library rather than adding to it, as I divide my time between Ohio, Missouri and Michigan, but have most of my work here at my son's home where I spend the winters.

I notice in the Elizabeth City Records the name Manson; my son is the fourth Manson Milner Brien in the family but we never could find where Ann (Milner) Brien got the name. My husband's line comes from a William Bryan of Cumberland County, Pa. who moved to N.Car. about 1760. His grandson, Elisha is the one who changed the spelling of the name. He went into Virginia, Campbell Co., where he married Ann Smith Milner and they were the great grand parents of my husband. Their four sons were all lawyers, the oldest Judge John Smith Bryan was Chancellor of the State of Tenn. at the time of his death in 1867. The next son Manson Milner Brien my husband's grandfather was Judge of the Circuit Court of Davidson County (Nashville) many years and M.M.Jr. our line. So much for that, so you see we do not belong to the lines I am trying to clear up now. I collected so much material on so many different lines that I had hopes of publishing a 'Bryan Book' but the depression and two boys in college put an end to that.

Now this past year some things have come up that make me doubt the Needham Bryan line. I think it is purely traditional, The earliest record started in 1722 with the story that William Bryan and Lady Alice Needham eloped to the colonies; that he was the Marquis of Thomond etc. (incidentally there is no 'Marquis' in the line, the title was Earl) and is buried as such in Pasquotank Co. 1742. I think that William Bryan was the son of that old John who died 1711 in Norfolk Co., who had land entries from 1652 on both in Norfolk and Isle of W. and who deeded to his sons John and William. As for the Needham family, you find them from Accomac to Augusta; no need to elope from Ireland.

If William did not deed that land to Needham, where did he get it? I notice the name Bryan in your Southampton Co. records. I have Surry Co. as a Bryan homeland, but not Southampton. I have tried to trail a Morgan Bryan, born 1710 in Surry with no success.

What would you charge me for any Bryan records you have, especially early marriages of Isle of Wight?

Edward Bryan married Christian Council (dau. of Hodges Council) and they were in N.Car. in 1706. I have an interesting deed showing that John Bryan, son of Edward sells land left him by his mother (part of Hodges Council tract). Lewis Bryan married Elizabeth Hunter of Surry Co. and entered land in N.Car. in 1713. These two and Needham settled in Albemarle (later Bertie) while in the southern part, Craven Co. the Irish line settled; then the Bertie Co. families moved down and there was a general 'mix up'. When I tell you that Bryan Grimes, who published the N.Car. Will Abstracts had four different Bryan lines one can readily understand how hard it is to clear some lines.

I made eight charts showing different lines of descent from these Bryans and sent them to Miss. Wakefield, editor of the Quarterly and she asked if she could give them to the D.A.R. so presume she did. Well this is a long letter (from a kindred spirit) so will close. I still think the Clerk was rude. He never would have answered if I had not written to the Judge.

BLACKMAN-WILLIAMS.

(Notes from the record of the BRYAN-WILLIAMS families for N. C. & Ga. from 1688 to 1899, by Rev. John Bryan Williams.)

BENJAMIN WILLIAMS and ISAAC WILLIAMS came to Richmond, Va. near 1700, from Berkeshire, England. Benjamin was in N. C. as early as 1735. He lived with his nephew COL. JOHN WILLIAMS at White Hall, N. C. after his marriage to MISS PUGH of Bertie. Was married 1745.

The other brother, ISAAC, lived in Richmond and was the father of the four brothers known to us. Investigations in Virginia may change it all.

Col. Nathan Williams made an annual visit to Roanoke River and to Richmond, till his death in 1796.

1. COL. BENJ. WILLIAMS was born in Va. (?) in 1717. He came into N. C. in 1750-60. He married MARY SMITH, dau. of JOHN SMITH, and lived on the Neuse River -
2. COL. JOSEPH WILLIAMS lived in Duplin Co.
3. COL. JOHN WILLIAMS, md. in Bertie Co., N. C. 1745, Ferabee Pugh, dau. of Col. Francis Pugh and Ferabee Savage.
4. ISAAC WILLIAMS, who lived in Va. on the Roanoke River, now Mecklenburg Co., Va. He was living in 1766. Had these children and perhaps others:
 - (1) JOEL WILLIAMS, came into N. C. in 1750-60 with four children, was drowned in the Cape Fear near 1764.
 - (2) ISAAC WILLIAMS, JR., died in Johnston Co., N. C. 1766. COL. BEN WILLIAMS and COL. NATHAN WILLIAMS were his executors. COL. WILLIAM BLACKMAN and JOHN BRYAN, of Bertie, were his witnesses. He left his property to the four children of his brother Joel and to Col. Nathan.

Since the Bryans intermarried with so many N. C. families who have so many descendants everywhere, I think you would find these Bryan records helpful, so if you do not have them, I will be glad to lend you my copy of this manuscript so that you may make a copy from it for yourself.

I find several Isaac Williams in the records, but you could better figure out for yourself which one you need.

MRS. WILLARD STEELE
CURATOR GENERAL, N. S. D. A. R.
MEMORIAL CONTINENTAL HALL
WASHINGTON, D. C.

Chattanooga, Tenn.
June 30th-

Dear Mrs Chapman,

Thank you ever so much for sending me the information and Miss Carpenter's letter. I appreciate your help and interest so very much.

After talking to you in Washington I heard about a Mrs Jones, who did research work in genealogy- She formerly worked in our Registrars office and has been retired and does such because she likes it and the fees add to her pension. I left all my material with her and she has really done some fine work for me.

There are a few items that she lacks - I had a letter from her the other day saying that she had my papers about ready to send to Miss Hinton but had found a snag---in that in one place the records show one name and in another a different name for one man's wife---

She said that she looked up all the references given and still had not found what she wanted-

Do you think that you or Miss Hinton would have the records that we need-- and should she try to get the matter of this name settled before she sends in the papers?

As she has all the papers in Washington I could not tell you what it is but I quote from her letter which I kept-

" All the notes I have copied state Robert (No 5) died and was succeeded by his half brother Charles and that Charles married Bridget- dau of Sir William Drury of Besthorp, Norfolk. The papers give Robert married Bridget dau of Sir Wm, Bryry of Norfolk. This mistake in the name Drury and Bryry could easily be made. I looked up all the references given in the papers and not any of them name the children of Robert or Charles. Possibly all references are not given."

She said that if she could not settle it she would send papers on to Miss Hinton and call her attention to this-- but would that mean that the papers would have to be copied all over if this name was wrong?

I am quite excited over finding all this information about my mother's people and over joining the Rummmedes and I hope that we can trace the connection with the Smith and other families.

I am sure that I will enjoy the Rummmedes ever and ever so much.

Thanking you again for your assistance and wishing you a very happy summer and hoping to see you again some time I am,
Most cordially yours,

Kate H. Steele

Dear Mrs. Chapman,

I hope I have found the Bryan-Blackman marriage that you were trying to locate. Anyway, I am sending you what I found in my records and do hope that it will help you.

I know nothing at all about any of this branch of Bryans - only happen to have a skeleton record that many Bryans in the several States have passed about and copied. For this reason, I cannot vouch for the correctness of the statements, and as the records were compiled some years ago, only in manuscript form, I imagine they will take much checking and verifying. The Bryan record in the last Hathaway's Register that I sent, may have something more to help you. If you do not have the other N. C. Registers available, and wish me to, I will look for further Williams data. Let me know.

Some years ago, I submitted a supplemental D. A. R. paper on JOHN SMITH (who md. Elizabeth Whitfield) and who was the father (supposed to be of the Elizabeth Smith who married Col. William Bryan. I had taken my statements from these incomplete Bryan records, and my paper was returned with the statement that it could not be proven that this John Smith did service. I believe that was the trouble, anyway I have done nothing further on my Smith line, but it seems to me that I have often seen notes on the descendants of the first Arthur Smith who was in Va., I believe, and have wished to know more of my Smith ancestry. If you have anything more about my Elizabeth (Smith) Bryan's parent-ancestry, please let me know. I have also had an idea that there was a connection in my Tooke family with the Arthur Smiths of Va. Seems that I have noticed that Arthur Smith's dau. married an ALLEN, and the given names of ARTHUR and ALLEN run all through the Tooke families. We are still trying to prove the parentage of JANE _____, the wife of our WILLIAM TOOKE, who d. in Surry in 1675. From various abstracts it seems that she may have been a SMITH and married several times - probably TOOKE - BENNS - RIDLEY. One Arthur Smith (1741) mentions his daughter, JANE RIDLEY. We have a wonderful Tooke record completely worked out, but need further proof on the wives.

Thank you lots for the many favors you have done for me and I do hope the enclosed notes will help you.

Cordially,

Lillian Carpenter

You're a wonderful interpretator of the hidden mysteries of ancestry and I am grateful to you for the loan of these splendid findings and report. Am so sorry to find that "Grandmother Alice" was not the "Lady" that we thought she was, but I believe you are right in your interpretation.

Hope my record that I sent of the later Bryan generations will be of some service to you, but these records are so useless without record proof of the statements - almost entirely tradition, but fine clues to run down, for tradition, after all, is a mighty fine guide.

Thanks again for the loan.

Dear Mrs. Chapman:

Looking over some old records at the Court House in Isle of Wight Saturday noticed you had done considerable research work there. I am interested in the Bryan family, who originally settled in that section of Virginia and later moved into North Carolina. Edward Bryan, who married Christina Council in 1699, John Bryan, Sr., and Lewis Bryan appear to be the only Bryans there is any early record of. Do you have any information as to their relationship, or their parents, or what part of England they came from? If so, what will you charge me for this information?

Lady Alice Needham, the daughter of Lord Needham, Viscount of Killorey, was born in 1656 and died in 1729. She married in England in 1689, William Bryan, Marquis of Thormond. They came from Ireland to Isle of Wight County, Virginia, in that year, finally settling on the Albemarle Sound in North Carolina. He served as High Sheriff and Justice of the Peace for Bertie County and a member of the Assembly from Pasquotank County. He died in the year 1742, leaving descendants.

It maybe true that there was a Bryan-Needham marriage, but records in Isle of Wight bear out the fact that it must have occurred earlier than the one claimed. The Alice - the mother of Needham Bryan was a MacLand in 1705. Needham Bryan was grown and married by 1713, he could hardly have been the grandson of above marriage claimed in 1689.

Council.

Hodges Council made his will in Isle of Wight in 1699. He married Lucy, daughter of John Hardy, Justice of the County Court about 1675. He was possibly a son of John Council who married, secondly, Mrs. Jeffries, the relict of Richard Jeffries in 1666.

Hardy Council, one of Hodges Council's sons, made his will in 1749, in which he stated he was near the age of 71 years, making his birth date 1678.

Hodges Council, in his will in 1699, mentions daughter Christian wife of Edward Bryan. An Edward Bryan, who made his will in Newborn, Craven County, N. C. in 1746, an ancestor of a distinguished North Carolina family, was evidently a grandson of the above Edward Bryan, for he mentions his brother Hardy Bryan in his will.
